TEAMWORK: GROUP vs. INDIVIDUAL

- Service Leadership is not about being the “leader” of the wolf pack, but about what YOU can do for your community
 - A single person can make a small difference, but a bunch of single persons working together can make an ENORMOUS difference.

Teamwork: Working together brings out the best in everyone. “There is no I in TEAM.” With more, you can achieve more.

Groups: Each person has traits that differs them from the pack. Utilize those traits to make service leadership more effective.

Individual: As an individual, you have so much potential in service leadership. The community is your playground. Show everyone that you aren’t just an ordinary person. BEE extraordinary!!!

SERVICE in Service Leadership

- Second step: “Provide opportunities for EVERYONE to make a change
- Third step: “Have your actions made a positive change?”

LEADERSHIP in Service Leadership

- For one to lead, one must first be a follower
- One must also have followers to lead
- In order to gain followers, one must respect one's self and one's surroundings
- “A leader is best when one barely knows he exists, when his work is done, his aim fulfilled, they will say: ‘we did it ourselves’
– Lao Tzu
