A Word from the News Editor

Hello, CNH Bees!

You’ve made it. You’ve done so much and seen so much in the past year, and now you’re standing on the edge of a new Key Club term. You’ve got a lot to be proud of—where are you going to start?

The cheers will still be ringing in your ears. You’ll be replaying spirit battles, reliving conversations, and rewinding memories. You’ll wish that it had all lasted a little longer. Can you go back? Only in memory can you put yourself back in the classroom where you’re attending your first meeting, the parking lot of your most memorable charitable car wash, or the amusement park as the lights of the afterglow set on your favorite Fall Rally. That isn’t quite it, though. Memories have been made and will continue to be made, but right now’s a time for celebration.

You’ve surprised yourself many times this past year; you’ve shown that there’s a lot more to you than meets the eye. You’ve doubted if what you’re doing was ever enough; you’ve asked yourself if it’d be all worth it in the end. You weren’t ever alone in wondering, but you also weren’t ever alone in growing into the leader you are today. I’ve read your articles, I’ve eaten up your newsletters, and I’ve listened to your stories. Your stories, your accomplishments, and your aspirations—they’ve inspired each of us to strive for more. Believe me, you’ve got a lot to celebrate.

Forever in Service,

Governor

Hello CNH Bees,

Eleven months ago, we embarked on our goal to celebrate service, leadership, and family. It is unbelievable that next week, we will be closing the 2014-2015 Key Club term and opening a new one at our 69th District Convention. Reflecting back on the year, we’ve all grown tremendously. Perhaps we’ve motivated one of our friends to join Key Club, attended more service events, or even ran in an election. Whatever feelings you may have about the end of the term, I hope you are proud of your accomplishments, matter how big or small. Because of your efforts as a member, CNH Key Club has a lot to celebrate.

We set a goal to celebrate service with five projects a month. Ultimately, our district has come together to perform over 900,000 hours of service. In terms of leadership, we now have over 40,000 members. To celebrate family, we were to each save five lives from maternal-neonatal tetanus. We came together to save thousands of families. We worked to go above and BEEYond the goals we set. Did you know that we fundraised over $150,000 for the Pediatric Trauma Program? CNH Key Club, you never fail to inspire me to continue serving. I really want to thank you for all of the service that you do. You are all truly amazing leaders.

I look forward to celebrating a magnificent year of service, leadership, and family with you. I know the weekend at Convention will be full of new experiences, new friendships, inspiring moments, celebration, and a newfound sense of pride in our ohana. Thank you once again for your service this year. You have taken the opportunity to open doors for yourself and others that will last for many years.

Hello, California-Nevada-Hawaii Key Club!

Here we are. March. The month of madness and four-leaf clovers and college decisions. For CNH Key Club, it’s also the end and the beginning of yet another beautiful year of opportunities for leadership and service.

They say that high school memories don’t really matter. They say that the little things and the petty drama we worry about will be irrelevant in a matter of years. They say we’ll look back and laugh at all the problems that we thought would end our lives right now. We’ve heard all of these things as high school students. In perspective, your membership in Key Club will only be a tiny part of your life. However, the amount of time you’ve spent with Key Club—be it four years or four months—has no bearing on the effect that it has on your life. I can honestly say that Key Club has changed my life for the better. Although I was only a part of the organization for a few years of my life, I can tell that the seeds of service have been planted in me, and I can spend the rest of my life helping them grow. Take the time to reflect on how Key Club has impacted you.

Saying goodbye isn’t always difficult. It is difficult when what you’re saying goodbye to means a lot. To those of us leaving the CNH Key Club ohana this year, this difficulty shows just how much Key Club truly means to us. However, I don’t see this so much of a “goodbye,” but more of a “see you later.” Each member of our district is unique in their own way, but we all have one thing in common: our love and appreciation for the core values and the mission of this organization. People with this strong dedication and passion for something will most definitely meet again in the future. Be it in Circle K, Kiwanis, or out in the “real world,” we are all forever united in our caring ways of life.

See you when I see you, CNH Bees. Stay golden.

Aloha, CNH Bees!

As clubs host their club elections, elects transition into their new Key Club leadership roles, and members come and go, this time of the year is sure to be hectic. As we prepare to transition from the ‘14-‘15 term to the ‘15-‘16 term, BEE sure to reflect on all of your accomplishments this year. CNH has done amazing things this past term, and all of it could not have been possible without your help!

This year, CNH Key Club raised over $170,000 dollars for the Pediatric Trauma Program. This money will go to partner hospitals within CNH, benefiting families and their children; the funds you raised will make a difference in hundreds, even thousands of lives. Continue to raise money for PTP, continue to inspire others, and continue to save lives. Thank you so much for your fundraisers and commitment to helping fund Kiwanis doctors and partner hospitals in helping prevent injuries in children.

Whether you are staying with Key Club, moving on to college (and possibly Circle K!), or going on whatever path you decide to choose remember to take with you all the experiences, memories, and values you’ve gained from being a part of our ohana. What you’ve done for your home, school, and community is all well worth celebrating.

Without each CNH leader across California, Nevada, and Hawaii, our district could not be as amazing as it is. Continue to serve, continue to lead, and continue to inspire. Our actions today change lives for the future. Thank you for an amazing year, CNH. Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your District Treasurer, and most of all, thank you for your commitment to service, leadership, and family.

Message from your TRUSTEE

Hello California-Nevada-Hawaii BEEs!

I cannot believe how quickly District Convention is approaching! I am excited to see all of you but also sad that our year serving together is coming to an end. Of course, your service and dedication to Key Club won’t stop at DCON. One way you can continue to contribute to The Eliminate Project is to create a home-made video explaining the cause and why you are passionate about it. Key Club International is seeking video contest entries until May 15th, 2015. In under two minutes, either share the importance and urgency of The Eliminate Project without using spoken words, explaining The Eliminate Project in a way that a five-year old would understand, or use only a dry-erase board to explain why Kiwanis is fighting MNT. Once your video is complete, post it on YouTube and send the link, along with your name/club’s name, phone number, and address to TheEliminateProject@kiwanis.org.

If you are going to continue your Key Club journey to International Convention in June, then I have a wonderful opportunity for you! There will be so many events and cool things to do during ICON, and one of the best is attending workshops run by other Key Clubbers. If you are interested in hosting a workshop, there are two ways to submit a workshop proposal; both are due March 20th. You can complete the proposal form by hand and fax or mail it to the Key Club International Office. You can also complete the form in Microsoft Word, save it, and email it to Charli Lienemann at cliemmann@kiwanis.org. More information can be found on keyclub.org. Please pass this message on to the members you serve so we can have as many awesome workshops as possible! Thank you for reading, and please let me know if there is anything I can do for you in these next few weeks!

NATIONAL PANCAKE DAY 2015

On March 3rd, 2015, IHOP will be offering a complimentary short stack of pancakes to every guest, celebrating a "Decade of Giving" with the tenth annual National Pancake Day. Guests all around the country will have the opportunity to enjoy a free short stack and will in return be asked to consider leaving a donation for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, raising funds and awareness for member hospitals, in order to provide for critical treatments and healthcare services, medical equipment, and charitable care.

DISTRICT CONVENTION SERVICE PROJECTS

PTP Doll Making

At the District Convention Service Expo, members will have the opportunity to help create dolls for the Pediatric Trauma Program. These dolls have the ability to act as an outlet for expression, a tool for doctors to demonstrate procedures to children, or as a pure boredom buster for patients.

Operation Gratitude

At the Service Expo, members will also have the opportunity to participate in a letter making activity for Operation Gratitude, an organization that allows members to send heartfelt care packages to those enlisted or retired in the military and their families.

Hello CNH! My name is Raymond Guan and I am a Seamonkey from Division 28 West and a part of the Region 5 Zombie Penguins. I currently serve as my club treasurer, division Service EXPO coordinator, and as a CNH Graphics Department member! Graphics are so creative and showcase artists' skills. That's why I love graphics and the ability to create graphics that allow members to represent CNH through art. Being a part of the Graphics Department has given me an opportunity as an artist to bloom and try new things. Additionally, I feel I have bettered my skills on programs such as Photoshop and Illustrator. I'm also grateful to have met so many other artists as well through this team and have been able to bond over our shared love of graphics since. The 2014-2015 Key Club term is coming to a close, and although this saddens me, this gives new members the opportunity to apply for the Graphics Department. YOU can join to expand your horizons and showcase your talents as an artist. Help represent all the bees of CNH!

Hi, my name is Catherine Eng from Division 15 in Region 13. I started my work in graphic design because I immediately fell in love with the way I could create clean designs and artwork almost instantaneously. I love how graphics catch people's attention and help to further their understanding, such as with infographics. As a member of the CNH Graphics Department Team, I have had the honor of designing many publications that have been shared with the District. I absolutely love being on the Graphics Department Team because Tina Bui is my queen and everyone on the GD team is so talented and amazing. I love seeing what my fellow team members do and the new, inspiring techniques they use. I also love the opportunity to use my graphic design skills in Key Club, proving Key Club fills many niches in my life. If you enjoy graphic design and rock at Adobe Illustrator, do NOT hesitate in signing up for the CNH Graphics Department. As a member, it is guaranteed that you will be challenged to rack your mind for innovative ideas and also be rewarded the amazing satisfaction of seeing your work all over the CNH District!

A Year Changes
Justina Voong | Division 7 South | Sheldon

If you were to rewind back to a year ago, I could probably only tell you what division I am from, and that would be about it. I wasn't the dedicated Key Clubber I am now; I only went to a few service events here and there, and never found my passion for Key Club. But a year from that, today, I have served my club as an Appointed Task Coordinator, and am now the Treasurer Elect.

A year ago, I made the questionable, but now probably one of the greatest, decisions to go to District Convention. I had figured since my groups of friends were going and the price wasn't too high; why not go to District Convention. As I began to attend general and District Convention specific meetings more often, I realized how out of place I was. Although everyone was extremely welcoming, I was surrounded by individuals who had a true passion and understanding of what Key Club was, while I was just kind of there. I didn't know any cheers or any general Key Club knowledge, but I was determined to learn more about what Key Club really was about.

When District Convention finally rolled around, I was extremely nervous. I didn't feel like I was ready to go through with this. I felt like I didn't have the necessary knowledge to go. People were constantly telling me “This is where the true Key Clubbers go” and that honestly frightened me because I was not considered a true Key Clubber. That all changed in one weekend. Attending all the general sessions, workshops, and just being able to talk to people and being able to see how each individual had their own passion and own definition of what Key Club really changed me. I realized that Key Club was more than what the books say, everyone’s Key Club journey is different, and I wanted to start on mine.

After District Convention was over, I felt that I had really changed as a person. District Convention really opened my eyes for qualities I never knew I had within myself. That is why when appointed positions were offered, I took that chance and throughout this term I was able to serve as Sheldon Key Club's Appointed Task Coordinator. This term has certainly brought new challenges for myself and opened doors to so many things I never knew I could do. I have grown as a leader, communicator, and a Key Clubber. I have learned so much, and that is what drove me to run to be Treasurer, and is why I will be serving my club as Treasurer in the next term.

Within this one year, I realized the true potential I had within myself, and I hope to continue to grow in all these qualities. I found that being a “true Key Clubber” had no real definition; it was how I defined myself as a Key Clubber. No one should be turned away from Key Club because they feel they aren't good enough or they don't know enough because everything is a learning process and that is what I definitely learned in the past year. Key Club doesn’t only serve local communities, when you join Key Club, it is like doing a service to yourself to unlock the true potential you may not have realized you had in yourself.
Encinal Key Clubbers prepare strings of beads to distribute later in the evening following the Cook-Off.

"¿Por qué quieres ir a un evento por una cultura diferente?" This is what my dad repeatedly asked me the morning when we drove to Pasadena so I could volunteer at the Asian American Expo. For those of you who can’t read Spanish, my dad asked, "Why do you want to go to an event for a different culture?"

The event started off with difficulty because security wouldn’t allow me to enter through the volunteer gate. I couldn’t prove how I was a volunteer; however, once that was resolved, the event truly began. I was immediately stationed to assist in a limbo-sort of game with members from a different division, whom were absolutely great. In between limbo with strangers and drinking Japanese ramune soda, it was a relaxed first couple of hours. The highlight was definitely seeing the excited little kids reach the ending and being able to hand them their prize. Then, we were allowed a 45-minute lunch break where I met up with members from my division and tried boba milk tea. After, I returned to my station. The lady in charge then said that I could go outside and simply work odd jobs.

The next two hours were a blur of carrying boxes, watching my friend eat a ramen burger on stage, carrying in and out game parts, taking selfies, and ferreting stacks of paper. Essentially, all the odd jobs had to do with the movement of items, but it was a great way to pass those couple of hours. Then, I was given the task to pass out papers, for which I had to learn four phrases in Chinese. Despite some people refusing to take papers from me, the most people were really kind and appreciated my efforts. Finally, I got to spend my final hour fangirling over performers Jason Chen and Lydia Paek. Overall, it was a pretty awesome day. I remember how I looked at my dad and said, "I’m not volunteering just to see one different culture. It’s an opportunity to expand myself alongside other amazing individuals." Looking back, I stand by what I said, and I look forward to the next opportunity that comes my way.

Cultural Interaction
Roy Garcia | Division 15 | Los Osos

For this month, Encinal Key Club had one of its biggest events of the year, the annual Chili Cook-Off! Our members did many of the behind-the-scenes jobs to set up a flawless Chili Cook-Off. In preparation for the cook-off later that evening, members were asked to help put up decorations and carry stuff around.

We even blew up tons of balloons for decorations. Although we did not end up put the balloons to use, it was still an overall fun experience for all of us because we got to have fun and work at the same time.

Later that evening when the event had started, many of us were stationed around to perform different jobs. We went around selling raffle tickets for drinks and prizes, cleaned up, and passed out silverware for the dinner ceremony.

When awards were being passed out toward the end of the meal, we got the chance to show our Key Club spirit to everyone. We told everybody how we felt through the “How do you feel?” cheer, and everyone enjoyed our spirited performance. After all the attendees were gone, we stayed to take down all the decorations and deflate the balloons. This cook-off was a very enjoyable and fun event we had with our Kiwanis.

Club Interviews
Natalie Lu | Division 35 East | Rowland

Get ready to whip out your finest business clothes, because it’s election season! With DCON coming around the corner in March, home clubs are undergoing the processes of officer elections and interviews. Rowland Key Club interviewed over 20 candidates for 7 different positions, with 11 of them also giving speeches to the members in hopes of being our future president or vice-presidents. Interviews took place over the course of two weeks, and the additional speeches were given on the Thursday of the last week. Members were given the chance to take part in the election process by listening to our candidates’ speeches and voting for who they believed best suited each position. Speeches were obviously not easy, but it was not impossible to overcome the fear, according to Wendy Zhang, candidate for vice president. “Of course, it’s a nerve wracking experience, but you’ve got to hold it together. That’s quite a feat for me, but I just need to remind myself, ‘For Key Club. You can and you will. For. Key. Club.’”, she says dramatically.

On top of speeches, interviews were held in a formal manner and placed in five-to-one ratios. The tense situation did not stop any of our candidates from preparing in a professional manner, however. “I would search up caucus questions online and answer them with my own personal experiences. On the day of the interview, I felt very nervous to be asked so many questions that sometimes my mind would blank out. However, I thought that whether I got the position or not, I was and am still glad that I took the opportunity,” Kailie Chang, who ran for secretary, states.

And despite the strained atmosphere among both interviews and speeches, the candidates still proved to be optimistic and turn it into a situation of joy. Jious Mira, candidate of vice president, claims, “I really enjoyed the whole election process. I learned a lot about myself while I was preparing for the interview and speech. I had to reflect on my strengths, weaknesses, and what I have that sets me apart from everybody else. I think I also learned more about the aspects of being a leader in Key Club and how important the position I wanted was in contributing towards our organization.”

In the end, the entire process proved to be rewarding, as not only did the 2014-2015 officer board have the chance to understand the candidates a bit deeper, but the candidates themselves also used the process to their advantage by discovering new parts of both themselves and Key Club.

A Run for Justice
Gwen Atherton | Division 18 East | El Diamante

Key Clubbers from El Diamante Key Club gathered at a local park to help end domestic violence. The Justice Run is put on by the county’s District Attorney’s Office to help raise money against domestic violence. Participants gathered from around the community to gain sponsorships and run or walk at the event.

Key Clubbers woke up at the crack of dawn to help prepare for the early morning run. Once on location, Key Clubbers helped direct and cheer on runners as well as pass out water bottles. While running, the participants need both encouragement and water to keep them going. Participants enjoyed knowing they were doing their part to help put a stop to domestic violence, and Key Clubbers enjoyed knowing they were doing their part to make the event possible through serving their community.

PICU Miracle Minute
Karl Catarata | D28S | Valley

Valley Key Club planned and organized project by wanting to do an end of the year service project - rather than simply attend another service event. We were able to raise over $380.00 in donations for the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit donations, and we were able to influence the school to care for those who need it the most! The donations are being used to create gift baskets filled with toys and treats for patients at the PICU in the hospitals. The project impacted our club by putting us all together, and being cohesive to raise funds for this important cause.

Best Buddies Day of Play
Anh Tu Lu | D30S | Oxford Academy

We partnered with another high school’s Best Buddies program and contacted other clubs to borrow games such as boat racing, bean bags toss, and bowling with bottles to create a small carnival day for special education students. Although this project doesn’t correlate directly to the Pediatric Trauma Program, it was still meaningful to our club and the Best Buddies program because it reflects the experiences that kids with pediatric trauma might have such as feeling left out or just having traumatic experiences from their own intellectual and developmental disabilities. Since I personally never got the chance to interact with special education students, I was able to gain a new perspective on how we are not so much different from them.

Spring is coming! March is the month to celebrate life and provide support for mothers across the globe. This month’s focus is on March of Dimes. Their mission is to help moms have successful pregnancies and research the problems that threaten the health of babies. By collecting funds, new vaccinations can be discovered to prevent innocent lives from being lost. Some project ideas are to have a teacher pie throw where you get your school aware of March for Dimes, and setting up collection boxes where members can have a dime war to see who can collect the most! Add up the total amount of hours the club has served and announce it at one of the final meetings; it is a great way to recognize every member’s hard work. Remember that members are required to serve 50+ hours to be an official member for Key Club. As the term comes to an end, remind any members that they are short of their 50 hours and keep holding service events!

SERVICE RECORDS

Revisit the tabs in the MRF and make sure everything is filled out correctly. The club roster is very important in determining member recognition! Check the Club Elections tab to make sure all the contact information is correct. The Projects List tab can also help next year’s officers with finding service events if they are having trouble. Review these tabs to ensure that all is filled out and correct!
Have each officer write a reflection of their term. Include what they thought went well, what the club could improve, and what they hope to see accomplished in this next term.

Have the new board create SMART goals for the club. Compare them to the old board’s goals and work out strategies to assure that the goals can and will be met.
TRAINING

1. Trade phone numbers and email between the old board and the new board. If there are any complications, questions can easily be asked. This also decreases any gaps in communication which can also strengthen the new leadership.

2. Have the old board properly train the new board. Have each position educate the elect fully on what the duties are of that position. Refer to the CNH CyberKey at cnhkeyclub.org if you are not sure exactly of what that position entails. This exercise allows the club to be able to effectively function from the beginning of the following term.

3. Hold elections a month or two before District Convention in March. This allows a transition period needed for the new board to effectively serve their club. Have the old board take the new board along with them on tasks that are required. For example, if a secretary is filling out the MRF, have the elect complete it with them. The transition period is very important so that no one is left alone not knowing what to do!
The club has worked hard the entire year! Rightfully recognize those who have gone the extra mile!

Visit the CyberKey and go under the Recognition tab for information on scholarships and the Member Recognition Committee. They even have templates for certificates you can give to the members you serve!

Examples of certificates you can reward members with are Member of the Month, Most Service Hours, Completed 50 Hours of Service, and more!
Making Goals

Have the old board go over the goals they made at the beginning of the term. It is important for the new board to make goals for what they hope to accomplish during their term. Remember to use SMART goals in order to be effective and efficient.

Goals will help the officers stay on track during the term. It creates an ideal end result in mind to keep them motivated!
CELEBRATE!

The club has worked incredibly hard this year, whether it be the advisor, the members, or the officers. What better way to end the term than with celebrating? Perfect with our District Convention theme, celebrate all that the club has achieved.

What is Kiwanis One Day?

Kiwanis Family members serve their communities all year long. But the excitement for service really builds in April each year when Kiwanis Family members come together for Kiwanis One Day—a day of community service that is felt around the world.

The entire Kiwanis family—Kiwanis, Aktion Club, Circle K, Key Club, Builders Club, and K-Kids—joins together for a large scale service project. Service Projects could range from a park clean up, building playgrounds, volunteering at a food shelter, and many other service projects.

On April 11th, 2015, Kiwanis Family members worldwide will be celebrating Kiwanis One Day by participating in service projects that impacts their community. Since this year is Kiwanis’ 100th year as a service organization, take part of this grand celebration by coming together with your Kiwanis Family and do what we do best, service. Contact your local Kiwanis club to organize a Kiwanis One Day event for your Kiwanis Family members.

Service Projects ideas for Kiwanis One Day:

- Park Clean Up
- Build a playground
- Pediatric Trauma Program Dolls
- Volunteering at Food Bank
- Book/Clothes Drive
- Reading to children

CNH Key Clubbers help out at Kiwanis One Day in Downey, CA.
Voice Announcements

Using voice announcements for marketing your club events and/or programs can prove to be very useful. Everyone loves hearing a good announcement!

Utilize school bulletins and social media to voice your club’s activity!

School Bulletins
- Have bulletins announce meeting reminders, service events, and club accomplishments
- Voice announcements create a more personal feeling for those listening

Facebook/Instagram
- Facebook is a great outlet for posting positive voice announcements
- Turn your voice announcements into videos and learn to connect with the members you serve

Posting on social media can be a great way to get the word out! However, it is important to remember that social media should be utilized appropriately. For more information, contact the Communications & Marketing Committee, (Chair Sona) @ cnhkc.cm@gmail.com.

A Division Council Meeting (DCM) is a meeting conducted by the respective Lieutenant Governor for the members of his or her respective division. DCMs are full of information about upcoming events, education about Key Club, and much more. There is always something for everyone at a DCM!

At DCMs, you will learn more about various projects and events, get involved with the division and its people, and gain a better understanding of how great this organization truly is. You are encouraged to attend in order to learn more about what’s been happening in Key Club, and why it matters to you. Some DCMs are even combined with a service project, fundraiser, or social event so you can be there for more than one reason!
