EDITOR'S AGREEMENT TO SERVE FORM

As a Key Club Officer candidate for Editor of my high school Key Club, I understand that some of the mandated requirements of the office are as follows:

- To complete at least 50 hours of service to remain a member in good standing.
- To become well acquainted with my fellow club officers and to work together as a team with them to plan club social, fundraiser and community service events and promote club member participation.
- To get to know my club members and to address their questions and concerns.
- To cooperate and work closely with our division Lieutenant Governor and Sponsoring Kiwanis Club to plan division-wide social, fundraiser and community service events and to promote attendance at these events by our club members.
- To provide my and my Key Club Board's current contact information (e-mail addresses and phone numbers) to fellow club members, club officers, the Faculty Advisor, Kiwanis Advisor, Lieutenant Governor and Regional Advisor, and to update them on changes.
- To have extensive knowledge of Key Club International and our CNH District.
- To have basic knowledge of online modes of communication.
- To be proficient in using current computer programs to create publications (i.e. Microsoft Word).
- To publish monthly newsletter to members providing important dates, upcoming events, officer information, meeting schedule, service project updates and information, review of completed projects, committee reports (if any), president's message, Major Emphasis Project Information, Reminders, and Dues Update.
- To post signs, banners, and posters announcing meeting dates, projects, and any type of Key Club promotion.
- To send articles to the district publication with photos.
- To make public service announcements, contact local press, and send articles to community newspapers.
- To post a calendar of events to publicize meetings and events.
- To update the club website (if you have one).
- To lead in favor of the best interests of the public or of members and /or the Kiwanis Family as stated in KCI Policy I. Conduct of Unbecoming a Key Club Member.
- To not threaten the standing reputation of Key Club and/or Kiwanis through the use of any inappropriate substances (i.e. unprescribed drugs, alcohol) or any other illegal or inappropriate practices as deemed in KCI Policy I. Conduct of Unbecoming a Key Club Member.

To attend the following MANDATORY meetings and conventions:

- Key Club regular and board meetings at my school (attend all meetings with rare exceptions)
- Monthly Division Council Meetings (DCMs) – attend a majority of the 8
- DCMs held each year, and ensure that at least two officers from my club attend every DCM (including summer) – unless my DCMs are held 1 hour or more away from my home.
- Officer Training Conference (OTC), held in our division by the Lt. Governor on any date between April, after the beginning of my term, and August.
- Regional Training Conference (RTC), held for our region by our region's Lt. Governors on any date between mid-September and early November.

The following are HIGHLY RECOMMENDED events to attend

- Key Club District Convention (DCON), April 2011 (Anaheim Convention Center) – unless you are from Hawaii. Fall Rally North or South both held in November of each year – unless you are from Hawaii.
- Have a club officer present at each of the Kiwanis Sponsoring Club Meetings.

EDITOR'S AGREEMENT TO SERVE FORM

Non-performance of these mandated responsibilities may result in removal from the office to which I am elected by the club officer board and advisors as specified in the club bylaws.

In addition, I understand that the conduct of Key Club business by any electronic means, such as websites, reflectors, e-mail, chat rooms, etc., must be conducted with Key Club integrity.
