Well, RTC is a time of learning and fun and when the divisions of Region 7 get together to learn new things essential for the year and to meet new people from our region! Over 200 people attend RTC and it's almost like a mini-DCON! Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity to learn and meet new people while having a great time! If you miss it, then you will regret it! Officers, please attend RTC. There are things you will learn there that will be very useful for you through out the whole year. Members are interested in becoming officers, please, try to attend because through RTC, you will be able to learn what being an officer is all about! Admission into RTC will be 5 dollars, but we will have food and drinks! Here's the info on RTC:
